DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 44 and 46 should refer to the "roll of heat shrinkable film" in order to better depend from claim 41. This is suggested claim language and not a rejection.

2. The art rejection using Konger is withdrawn in view of applicant's declaration that the film of Konger will not absorb IR radiation and thus fails to provide motivation to increase the absorption of IR radiation.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 36-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heilman et al. (Australia 27,337) in view of Amberg et al. (U.S. 3,955,699) further in view of Anderson et al. (U.S. 5,113,479).

Art Unit: 1772

Heilman et al. teach a film which extends over the rim of a container and is heat shrunk onto the container by applying energy which may be in the form of infrared radiation to the edge first while the top is shielded, then to the top as an option to further tighten the film (page 10). The film may be transparent (page 3). Amberg et al. teaches using an opaque material on a lid edge so as to be directly heated by infrared radiation (col. 4, lines 45-50). Anderson et al. teach the use of coloring on an edge to better absorb infrared radiation to raise the temperature to heat seal the edge of the film (abstract). The instant invention claims a printed area on the edge rim of a film lid to better absorb radiation in order to heat shrink the film. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to direct the infrared radiation of Heilman et al. directly on the edge of Heilman et al. in order to better shrink the transparent edge of Heilman et al. because of the teachings of Amberg et al. to directly heat a lid edge material that is opaque in order to use less energy by directed heating. It further would have been obvious to color only the edge of the film of Heilman et al. in view of Amberg et al. in order to color only the edge of the film and not the entire material of Heilman et al. in view of Amberg et al. because of the teachings of Anderson et al. to color only a selected area.

Art Unit: 1772

Use of film in a roll to make lids and printing and use of tint to create opaque areas for infrared absorption are conventional.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 36-46 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 15, 16 and 19 of U.S. Patent 5,993,942 . Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims differ only in the language used to describe the same structure.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 19 May 2003 are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
